

Why Not Quarantine For "Flu" In Rockcastle

We Call On the Public To Effect a Voluntary
Quarantine Themselves—Post Influenza Card

SAVING OF ONE LIFE WORTH TROUBLE

Only Bread-Winners Should Be Permitted To Leave Home; Others Should Be Isolated.

Quarantine has been ordered through the United States Public Health Service in many places throughout the country, and it is hoped Rockcastle will not wait but act at once to help curb spreading of the disease. Let every citizen effect a quarantine against influenza and that at once, right now. The loss of a single life is more than worth the trouble. Immediate action is what is needed and not a consideration. If you only have a very light case it may infect others and be the cause of a death. The public should do their part and not wait to be forced to do so. Don't be smart or ignorant in so serious a matter. Do not be afraid of the disease but do everything you can to avoid contracting the disease, thus prevent its spreading. If you become infected make it a special duty not to do anything that will likely spread the disease; always remember the death that may result from your direct neglect, and sometimes by actual ignorance of what you are doing. Let us be plain spoken and careful about the matter. Read careful a circular that has been distributed through the post office, issued by Rupert Blue, Surgeon General.

In Louisville bread-winners in the houses placarded for influenza are permitted to leave the house, on conditions that he has not come in contact with the patient. The exact rules of quarantine given each placarded house follow:

Family Must Be Isolated.
"All members of a family in which there is a known or suspected case of influenza shall be isolated until the recovery of said case, provided that bread-winners and wage earners may continue at their vocations as long as they do not come in contact with the patient until such patient is officially discharged by the health department."

The rules that have been given in Louisville concerning the placarding of houses and apartments follow:

"In case of a private residence influenza placard is to be placed in a prominent place at the front of the house."

"In case of apartment houses, placard the apartment only."

"In case of rooming houses, where the case is separated from other roomers, placard the door of the room only."

"In case of hotels, where the case is separated from other roomers, placard door of the room only."

Labor Needed to Save Camp Knox for State

Emergency Causes Summary
Notice From Authorities At Washington.

DRAFT MAY COME IF VOLUNTEERS FAIL
State Wide Calls Sent Out To Lend Aid For Speeding Up Work.

State wide calls have gone out to save Camp Henry Knox at Stithton for Kentucky. The authorities at Washington have served notice on Kentucky that if they cannot produce the necessary laborers to complete the work at Stithton before cold weather sets in the permanent artillery camp, representing an investment of probably $20,000,000, will be withdrawn from the state entirely.

Immediately upon receipt of these advices the state officials got busy and are sending out calls to all individuals and business organizations, pointing out the emergency and frankly declaring that if Kentucky carpenters and laborers do not volunteer for the work, a forcible draft must be made effective at once on non-essential industries.

ULTIMATUM ISSUED!

Work at Camp Knox has dragged for lack of men and winter time is now approaching with thousands of the soldiers still in tents at Camp Taylor and West Point. The ultimatum is that barracks to hold not less than 30,000 men and stables for 15,000 animals must be completed by December 1. It is the belief of the Kentucky authorities that even more is possible than erect workmen can be secured to erect buildings that will accommodate possibly 50,000 men with stable accommodation for 30,000 animals. This is the present patriotic determination.

Pratt Dale, Federal Director of the United States Employment Service immediately issued a public notice, sent broadcast throughout Kentucky, telling just what the state was up against.

He called a meeting of various interests, including John Griffiths & Son Company, builders of the Camp for the government, Major W. H. Radcliff, constructing quartermaster in charge, and organized an intensive campaign that is destined to reach every city and hamlet of Kentucky.

AUTHORITY FOR DRAFT.

"Every man and every business organization," said Mr. Dale "must realize that this is an emergency that calls for immediate action. Under the authority given us from Washington if the men in sufficient numbers do not volunteer their services we must draft them from the non-essential industries. It is up to the employers of laborers throughout Kentucky immediately to displace men in their employment with women and recommend their employees to enter the service at Camp Knox."

Major W. H. Radcliff, constructing quartermaster at Camp Knox, has also appealed to the people of Kentucky to volunteer for service. "Every nail you drive," says Major Radcliff in a ringing message to workmen, "every brick you lay, every bit of real work done, will add to the growing loads around the Kaiser's neck. The war won't wait."

WOMEN APPRALED TO.
Women are asked to take a leading part in the campaign for volunteers to prepare the quarters for soldiers. "If it is not your son who must be housed at Camp Knox this winter," the call reads, "it is the boy of some other mother—all of them training to protect our liberty in the great fight for freedom. Provided the men do not volunteer for this well paid and patriotic work, it is the duty of every loyal Kentucky woman to report them to the nearest United States Employment Service just as they would a Hun spy or an army slacker."

It is to the women of the State to show the men that it is their duty to volunteer for work at Camp Knox and to take their places during their absence.

All of the organizations interested in the construction of Camp Knox have agreed upon C. C. Quinlan as director of emergency employment and the details of organizing the State and procuring workmen are in his hands.

Letter From Clarence Rickels

Somewhere in France.

Dear mother and all:

I guess you think I have forgotten you entirely but I have not. I have been in the hospital two months and am getting along fine, only I can't use my hand. I expect to be out in a few weeks. I was only slightly wounded so don't worry about me. I have not got any mail from you for quite a while. I guess I will get a bunch of them in a few days. I lost most of my letters upon the front, but I hung on to a couple of yours. I think we will all be at home this time next year. How is Anna and her husband getting along? Fine I hope. Say mother what is the matter with Clyde? He never writes to me. I wrote him a letter two months ago and never got any answer. Tell him to write and all the rest write me also. Just think if you were over here alone, you would like to hear from us at home. Well, mother I will have to close for this time, so be sure and answer soon and don't worry about me for I am alright. Just one place under my arm and about twelve places on my back. Tell father to write to his son once in awhile. I would love to see all the folks at home. So good bye.

Your loving son,
Clarence Rickels.

Red Cross To Help Flu Infected Districts

Cities and towns needing nurses and hospitals supplies to care for influenza cases among civilians must make their needs known through their local health officer and local Red Cross Chapter and not apply direct to Red Cross division headquarters.

The same procedure holds good for military schools established in colleges which may be stricken with the epidemic.

This statement was issued at Lake Division headquarters this afternoon as a result of the confusion arising among civilian population and student soldiers needing nursing care and supplies.

If local Red Cross resources and public health resources are not adequate, local health officers can get help from Division Red Cross headquarters if their state boards of health request it.

All chapters have been provided with full instructions as to procedure, relationship with local boards of health and with the division headquarters. Meanwhile the Lake Division is still sending nurses and hospital supplies direct to military camps almost as quickly as requisitions are received. New requisitions are on hand from Camp Taylor, Sherman and Buell.

All graduates and practical nurses are again urged to communicate with their nearest Red Cross chapter for assignment.

Chapters have received full instructions how to carry out a survey of their local nursing resources and all nurses are repeatedly being urged not to go out on any influenza assignments without some authorization from the Red Cross. This is to enable the Red Cross to keep a constant inventory of the number and kind of nurses available. With out this inventory, according to the statement from division headquarters, confusion will result.

Today's instructions to Red Cross chapters from James L. Fieser, chairman of the division Committee on Influenza, suggest that local chapters organize groups of lay women to augment the professional nursing forces if necessary. The instructions, however, point out that the organization of such women should include only those who are, through some previous training or experience, qualified for membership in this important auxiliary force.

Don't burn leaves during the influenza epidemic. Health Officer Peters ordered Monday.

"Bury them. They make good fertilizer."

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Collector's Office, Danville, Ky., Oct. 14th, 1918.

In order that those who have income and profits taxes to pay may prepare themselves in advance for the large payments and to accumulate gradually the fund necessary to meet them, Collector of Internal Revenue, John W. Hughes calls attention of the taxpayer to advantage of purchasing now Treasury certificates of indebtedness bearing 4 per cent. interest and maturing July 15th, 1919.

The Collector has been advised by the Secretary of the Treasury that certificates of this issue will be accepted at par, with adjustment of accrued interest, under rules and regulations to be prescribed, in payment of income and profits tax when payable at or before maturity of the certificates.

"It is the aim of the Government to make the floating of this issue of certificates of indebtedness a popular one" said Collector Hughes and it will be to the advantage of those whose taxes are measured in comparatively small amounts as well as the large corporations and wealthy persons to participate in the purchase of these inpregnable securities."

These certificates may be purchased at the Federal Reserve Bank or at any bank or trust company. They are in denominations of $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, and $100,000.

It is with much feeling that the Signal speaks to the public at this trying time, such as we are passing through in the influenza epidemic, and whilst it is impossible to mention the names of the affected ones in the county, we extend our good wishes to all who have suffered, and hope that the disease will abate rapidly, and that no further deaths will occur. We ourselves have suffered and know its effect. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved who have had the misfortune to lose their loved ones.

BRODHEAD

Lee Carson, 13 years old, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, died at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning with influenza. Lee had never been strong physically and had been a sufferer for many years with asthma and doubtless had some tubercular trouble and the disease proved too much for his run down condition and after several days of intense suffering finally succumbed to it. He was a bright boy, a favorite of the family and every body liked him. He was a member of the Christian church and a regular attendant both of church and Sunday School and will be greatly missed by his many young friends and associates. In many respects this was one of the saddest funerals we ever attended, and what made it more so was the small number that was able to attend, and so many of his little friends were unable to attend either because of sickness or the scare of the disease. The remains were buried at the Christian church cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock after short services by his pastor, Elder L. N. Bowling. Besides his father and mother he is survived by one sister, Miss Ella Carson, Matron of a school at Colchard, W. Va., and four brothers, Blain, Givens, Gus and Wayne. Blaine and Givens are in the service of Uncle Sam and could not reach here in time for the funeral, as was the case with Miss Ella. Mr. and Mrs. Carson and the entire family have the sympathy of their many friends in this sad bereavement.—Mrs. H. H. Hutcheson, of Middlesboro, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Gravelly recently.—Mrs. Frank Baker and children, of Winchester, were here a few days ago the guest of their uncle, John Robins and family.—Three deaths have been reported in the last few days from Flu in the Wiggins settlement. A small child of Levi Denny, a young man son of Bill Newell and the wife of James Spooramore.—Gov. Frith, who fell from a train on which he was braking, is able to be out on crutches.—Wm. Francisco who has a good passion with a Coal Company in the mountains, came home Sunday on account of the serious illness of his family. Mrs. Francisco and their son, John Farris, are mighty sick and their recovery is very doubtful at present.—Captain George Frith, now stationed at a training camp in South Carolina, was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Frith here, a few days last week.—Roy Roberts, age 24, son of Mrs. Sallie Roberts, of Gum Sulphur, and a brother of our Monte Roberts, died at his home Wednesday of last week and his remains were buried at the family burying ground near the home of A. J. Bailey the following day. He had influenza and pneumonia. His mother, one sister, Mrs. James Hayes, and three brothers, J. Monte Roberts, member of the firm of Shafer & Roberts, here, Guy Roberts, now in training at West Point and Clarence Roberts, of Gum Sulphur, survive. Mr. Roberts was single and ran the farm for his mother.

Deaths Elsewhere of Rockcastle Citizens

HIATT CRAWFORD, Indianapolis.
ALLEN SMITH, Battle Ship New Jersey.

HIATT CRAWFORD—Our Soldier Boy

Hiatt Crawford was the first of our town boys to be brought home in his casket, wearing the uniform of his Country. His death touched the depths of this community's emotions. The whole community honored, respected and loved this soldier boy. They shared with the family their pride in him. He belonged to the highest type of young American manhood.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones. There are very few families in town or in this vicinity that have escaped the Flu epidemic and the seriousness of it has been felt in many homes. Dr. M. E. Craveley is confined to his bed now with it, and the first of last week Dr. W. F. Carter was confined several days with it. The doctors and druggists are kept very busy and in fact a half dozen doctors could not have answered all the calls that came to town. We feel, however, that the worst of the epidemic has been reached and that conditions will soon settle back to their normal state. Last Sunday was the first and only time within our memory that no bells were heard at the different churches, and there was no public worship in town—Gny Roberts, who is stationed at West Point was at home a few days on account of the death of his brother, Roy Roberts.—Edd Smith, of the Hiatt section received a message Wednesday morning that his son, Allen Smith who recently volunteered his service to his country and was in the Navy, died at with pneumonia. It is thought that his body will be shipped here for burial but nothing definite has been learned about it up to the present (Wednesday evening). Allen was a fine young man and had many friends here who are grieved to learn of his sudden death, and much sympathy is felt for his father, brother and sisters who survive him.—Cashier and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt were in Stanford Tuesday having dental work done.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown recently moved from Quail and are occupying the house owned by Miss Isabelle Martin. Mr. Brown is braking for the Louisville & Nashville on this division.

CAN NOW EAT AND SLEEP IN COMFORT.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief from taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well.

can manhood. He was young, had ambitions and plans his devotion to a home that needed him, but his country and humanity called and with a smile on his face he answered that call. He made no claims for exemptions and spoke no word of complaint about his lot, but went before his Government called him. He had both the rugged strength and vigor of manhood and the tender devotion of childhood. Before his camp was placed under quarantine, he wrote his mother every day. He gave his life to his country as truly as soldier has who died on the "glory" field. His family has given—they only and God know how much. But they have a respect for and a pride in their soldier boy that the parents of no living Slacker son can ever know.

W. H. KRUEGER

On the 14th of October, 1918, W. H. Krueger died at his home, in this town, after an illness of only a few days of that devastating plague, Spanish influenza, which is so fatally sweeping our country to-day.

Will Krueger, as he was familiarly called, was born Oct. 5th, 1881, and came to this country with his parents in 1883, and twenty-seven years ago his parents located in this place which has been his home ever since. He grew up here with our boys and became one of them. He was a favorite among his associates and playmates. He attended the public and high school here, and afterwards was a student in Central College, Danville, Kentucky, and later attended the Law School in Louisville, Kentucky, and was admitted to the practice of the law in January 1911. October the 12th, 1911, he married Miss Mary Cecil, of Dublin, Virginia, who survives him. To them was born one son, Fritz, who is now four years old and an exceedingly bright and lovely little boy. Besides his wife and little boy he leaves his father, Fritz Krueger, Sr., and two brothers, Fred and August, who are residents of this place and successful business men. His mother died about twelve years ago.

Will Krueger was a talented and successful professional and business man, and had the brightest of prospects before him when his useful life was cut short. He was a strictly sober, moral man, devoted to his friends and his family. He joined the Presbyterian church at this place when it was organized about twenty years ago.

At a meeting of the Bar of Mt. Vernon, on the 17th of October 1918, the following proceedings were had: The members of the Bar met in the Court House and were called to order by Judge C. M. Ballard who stated the object of the meeting when Judge L. W. Bethurum was elected chairman, and T. J. Nicely, secretary. The chairman then appointed C. C. Williams, H. J. McClure and J. W. Brown, a committee, to prepare and present resolutions expressing the sense of the meeting upon the death of W. H. Krueger, who reported the following which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we recognize that in the death of W. H. Krueger a lawyer of ability and much promise has been taken from among us and taken to that great high Court where soon we too, must all appear.

Second, We extend to his bereaved widow, his youthful son, his heartbroken father, his brothers and other relatives our most sincere sympathy.

Third, That we request that these resolutions be spread at large on the Order Book of the Rockcastle Circuit Court, and that they be published in the Mt. Vernon Signal.

H. J. McCLURE,
J. W. BROWN,
Committee.

Make Purchase of Bonds Easier

Cleveland banks and trust companies have agreed upon a plan which makes buying Liberty Bonds very close to the easiest thing in the world.

To those who cannot conveniently spare the cash for their bonds, they will make loans up to 90 per cent of the par value of the subscriptions for ninety days from October 14, on bonds purchased through these institutions. The interest rate will be the coupon rate, 4 1/2 per cent.

Moreover they will renew these loans, when satisfactorily reduced, for a second ninety days, at one-half of one per cent in excess of the Federal Reserve bank's discount rate on such loans. The Reserve bank's rate of discount now is 4 1/2 per cent, subject to slight change at any time.

These loans will not interfere with the borrower's regular line of credit. The purpose of the plan is to encourage the taking of larger bonds than would otherwise be bought.

THE WESTERN FRONT AT HOME

Earn and give. For a year the young people of America have been conched in thrift. Instead of the old problem in the arithmetic book, "If Mary's mother gave her three apples, Jane gave her two, and she ate one, how many would she have?" the third grade girl is now sent to the blackboard to solve, "How many Thrift stamps at 25 cents apiece will Mary own at the end of 12 months if she saves 10 cents a week?"

The girl in the grade above her is learning in her arithmetic lesson how many Thrift stamps it takes to buy the yarn for 500 helmets for the soldiers in France. Still further on the eighth grader is told to figure in terms of War Savings stamps how much it costs to supply a regiment of Uncle Sam's men with shelter tents.

And now the Earn and Give club of the younger girls of the Young Women's Christian association is organized to turn those Thrift lessons into giving. The children of America have been turning in pennies and nickels and passing a green stamp on their Thrift card. The Earn and Give club can now use some of those cards and War Savings stamps in their campaign among the younger people for the united war fund.

This fall when the war council of the Y. W. C. A. made plans for the 1918 war drive, it included in its program the rule that no young girls under eighteen can do any soliciting on the streets or otherwise. They can give, but they can only give by earning. Consequently in order to coordinate the efforts of the girls in all the districts over the country, the Earn and Give club is enrolling members and has given out an estimate of $5 apiece to be earned for the war fund campaign by the American girls who still count their age in teens. Five dollars apiece from the younger girls of the country will mean that the nation as a whole will fill its charitable organizations' war chest.

Some high school girl in New York city is going to earn her $5 by shining her own shoes instead of stopping at the Greek stand on her way to school every morning. Cut in town the girl who has been spending 15 cents plus war tax for a movie three nights a week is going to drop a dime through the movie habit except when there is an especially good bill. More than one girl plans to clean all her own gloves this winter and to salvage all the paper and collections of junk about the house which should be sold to the junk man to be worked over into some productive industry. The girls in their teens are going to earn instead of ask others for the money. They are to sacrifice and give in their own names and older women will make the public requests for money elsewhere.

Many of the girls who are waiting to join the Earn and Give club are already Patriotic League members, and they have learned several practical lessons in the Thrift that will make them effective members of the new club by their conservation of fruits and vegetables. They have counted and packed. Now when the end of summer brings the beginning of school they will change their Thrift into winter Thrift and begin saving their $5 for the Y. W. C. A. war fund.

"Wherever You Are Is the Western Front" is the slogan which the Earn and Give club has adopted. Anna, one of the thirteen-year-old daughters of New York's East side, who was one of the first young girls to join the campaign at a New York settlement house, had to have it explained to her that instead of western front meaning fight and fight meaning fists, the western front means work and work means save in order to give.

The girl who joins the Earn and Give club will discover that in conjunction with her working and saving in order that her club will furnish its quota of the money that is going to help the girls like herself in France and Belgium, she will also find numerous ways in the community to help the war that she had never dreamed of. She will see that all the fruit pits and stones that can be saved from her own dining table and from those of her neighbors, are dropped into the little red barrel at the corner. In order that the carbon which the seeds contain can be used in making charcoal for the American soldiers' gas masks. She will save all the tin foil that she sees for the Red Cross. She will help collect clothing for the French and Belgian orphans and perhaps send them some of her own.

School girls in India, children from squallid, dingy homes, with absolutely no spending money, gave last year to Belgium and Armenian relief when they themselves were not getting enough to eat. They gave up their meat once a week for the Belgians, though they only had it twice a week themselves, and for the Armenians they set aside the handful of fresh grain that otherwise each girl would have ground in her own little stone mill. Both contributions, from all the girls in one missionary's school, amounted only $5 a month. "But it was a tremendous sacrifice," their teacher writes, "although a joyous one. It actually meant less bread each day, and once a week a meal of dry bread and water. This was done by 80 girls from the meanest homes in the world—children between the ages of five and fifteen."

Four hundred thousand girls in 47 states have become Patriotic League members since America declared war. If as many school girls and working girls from all classes decide to earn and give, the united war fund campaigners will have $2,000,000 of their $170,500,000.

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be . . . writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around. . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

FARMER WILL NOT FAIL U. S. IN ITS GREATEST TEST

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE IS SURE RURAL SECTIONS WILL BUY BONDS.

BY D. F. HOUSTON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

DAVID F. HOUSTON

The Fourth Liberty Loan will not fail for lack of support of American farmers.

That is the answer I am giving to those who ask me what the response of the American farmer will be, I am making for the confident assertion in the face of the fact that the American people are now being asked to make a colossal contribution to liberty—six billion dollars.

American farmers have demonstrated their patriotic support of the nation's great war loans. One of the most striking features of the Third Liberty Loan was the support given by the farming and rural populations. Not only did farmers purchase Liberty Bonds, but the rural communities as a rule were more prompt in completing their quotas than the larger cities.

More than twenty thousand communities in the United States subscribed or oversubscribed their quotas, many of them on the first day of the campaign.

The majority of these were not cities but country districts. Iowa, a typical agricultural state, was the first to subscribe its quota.

But we now have a greater effort to make. Our largest war loan has been launched. It will tax our determination to defend our liberty and our republic at all costs. Our armies in the field are fighting victoriously. The forces at home are now in an offensive that must not fail.

Let us buy Liberty Bonds that we may attain our objective, a righteous and lasting world peace.

The Yanks Are Buying Bonds

The Yanks are buying bonds. It's not enough for them to live and die and suffer all the agony of living death. They know just what their comrades die for when they fall.

They know its meaning to us here at home. They know the menace of the Prussian lie To all the world and all the race to come. They know just what they're fighting—yes, and why.

And, therefore, while they offer life, they cry, "It's not enough. Not now. If we can aid in other ways, we must. We know the need. Of guns as well as lives in our crusade."

"We like our pay, but we can let it go for such a thing as this. We'll do it, too. And if the folks at home can't raise enough. We'll borrow some to bring those billions through."

Oh yes, the Yanks are buying. We can rest And know they'll make up what we don't provide. If we can let them, then let's hope the deed. Knew not those whom they died for ere they died!

—Lucy Jeanne Price.

56 State Banks Are Members of Federal Reserve Bank System

The Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland and its system of member banks will one day soon represent a total of resources of one billion dollars.

Recent figures showed that in the Fourth District 56 state banks had been admitted to membership, and they have raised the total resources to $603,278,000. Applications are pending from numerous other institutions in the district and as the bankers learn the advantages of being member banks all institutions will undoubtedly make application for membership.

The Federal Reserve Bank system of the country is credited with being the most powerful agent in making possible the flotation of the three Liberty Loans.

Forty Five Years of Success The astonishing Record of PERUNA

Not a cure-all, but a rational remedy for catarrh and all inflammation and congestion of the mucous membranes.

Catarrh attacks the mucous linings, in any organ, in any part of the body. It is not, as some imagine, confined to the nose and throat, although nasal catarrh is the most common form and afflicts many people.

Unchecked catarrh soon breaks down the tissue and destroys the organs or part. Evidence of the ravages of catarrh are all around us. Without desire to frighten anyone, we say: "Guard yourself against catarrh as you would against the dread plague. Fortify your system. Take Peruna."

INSPIRING WORDS FOR THE SICK FROM THOSE WHO KNOW.

A Good Medicine in the Family. I had a bad case of catarrh and could get no relief. Peruna cured me. It is a fine medicine. We often use it in the family and find it good.

MRS. GENTRY GATES, 8225 First Avenue, East Lake Station, Birmingham, Alabama.

FEELS LIKE A DIFFERENT PERSON. Peruna has cured my stomach and I feel like a different person. I only took twelve bottles of Peruna and can eat anything without distress, something I have not done for fifteen years.

I recommend Peruna to everybody suffering with catarrh of the stomach.

FOR ALL FORMS OF CATARRH. Peruna is indicated for all forms of catarrh or catarrhal inflammation and congestion of the mucous linings in any part or organ, such as nose, throat, bronchial tubes, lungs, stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, etc. It is fine for coughs, colds and effects of the grip and an excellent preventive remedy.

If you want health, insist upon having Dr. Hartman's World Famous Peruna Tonic. Sold Everywhere.
